SPORT MANAGEMENT

PROGRAM

Our mission is to graduate scholar-practitioners, and researchers, who have the knowledge, skills, and values to lead the sport industry in the 21st century and who envision sport as a vehicle for positive social outcomes.

The Sport Management program is designed to prepare students to enter careers in the sport industry. Students can choose from a variety of cognate areas:

- Business Administration
- Marketing
- Management
- Finance
- Business Law
- Communication Science
- Sociology
- Psychology
- Educational Leadership

Graduates of the program are prepared to pursue careers in intercollegiate athletics, facility management, professional sports, the sporting goods industry, private/public sport clubs, resorts, and events management. Some students choose to continue their education through graduate studies in sport management, law and business.

HOW TO APPLY

Successful applicants must:

- Apply by February 1 of sophomore year (transfer students MUST apply separately to UConn and Neag School of Education by February 1)
- Have earned the most competitive cumulative GPA (typically 3.0 or higher)
- Submit three professional references (name, title, contact) and one letter of recommendation (from the three professional references listed above)
- Complete a personal statement
- Have accumulated sufficient experience related to career choice in the area of sport management

RESOURCES

Husky Sport

The undergraduate program has a unique partnership with Husky Sport. Students in the Sport Management program can develop skills to plan, promote, and provide valuable services through service learning and the use of sport at the UConn campus and in the Greater Hartford area. This is accomplished through a collaborative partnership with Husky Sport. For more information, visit https://huskysport.uconn.edu/.

UConn Sport Business Association

Undergraduate students are encouraged to become members of the UConn Sport Business Association. The association has helped Sport Management students gain knowledge from experts working in the field, in addition to providing ample networking opportunities. For more information, visit https://www.uconnsportbusinessassociation.com/.
